Introduction

Since Chinese medicine deals with health & disease in human beings in terms of interactions of 5 elements namely wood, fire, earth, metal & water, an attempt herein will be made to judge effects of mantra chanting on different meridians.

Please see the report obtained on a Russian gadget claiming to give its findings concerning various meridians in the light of whatever corrective i.e. sedative or activating measures employed.

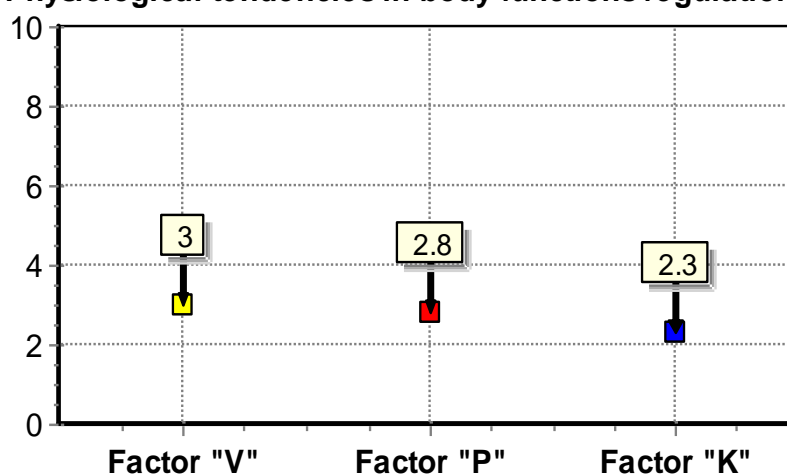

Report 1 shows state of meridians before starting the trial, classified in to groups like normal, slightly depleted, severely depleted etc.

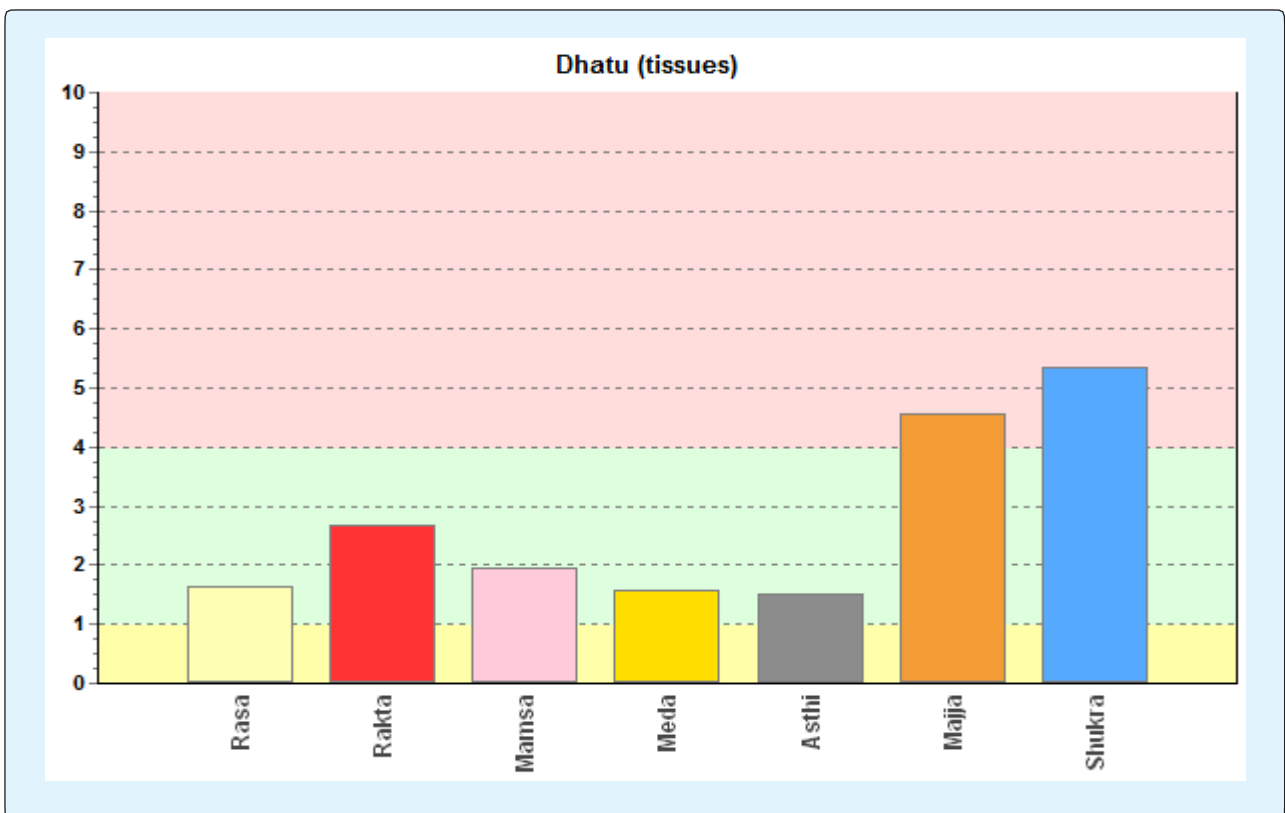

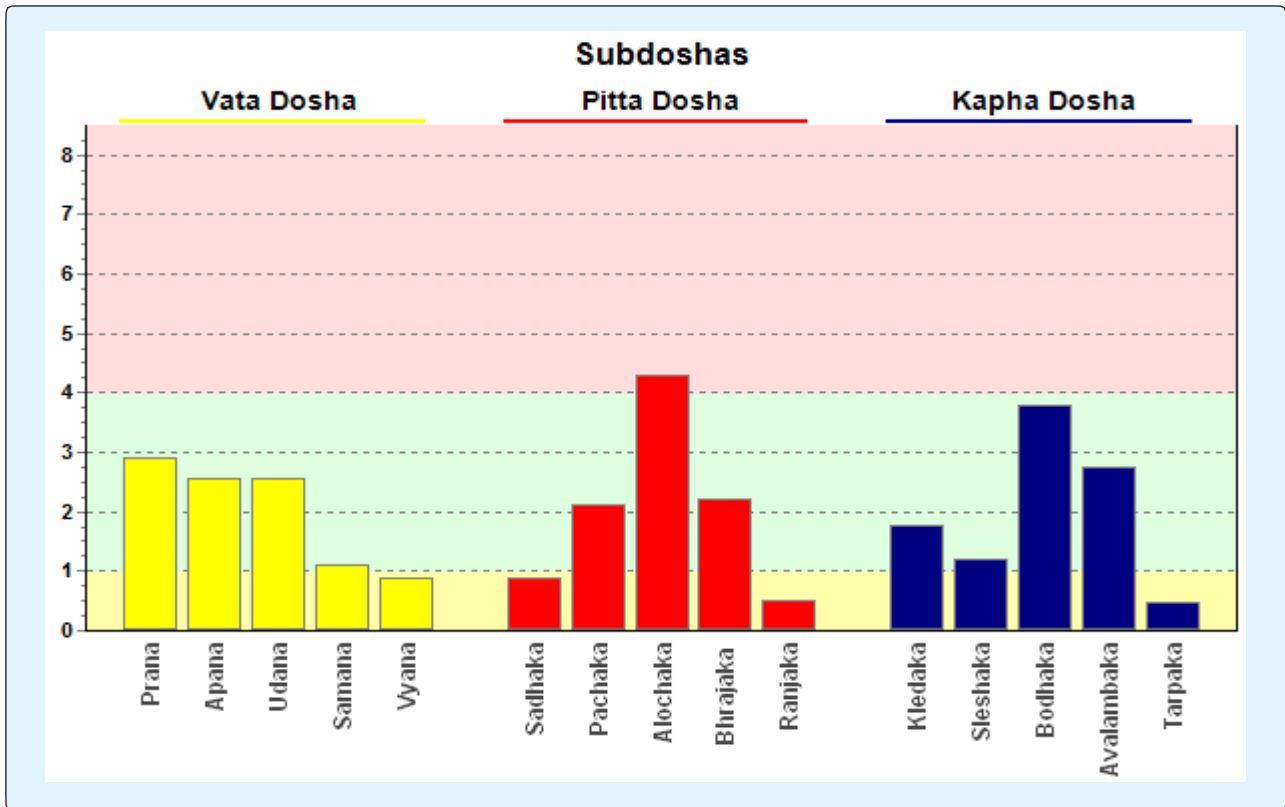

Full name: Georgy Nakrokhin

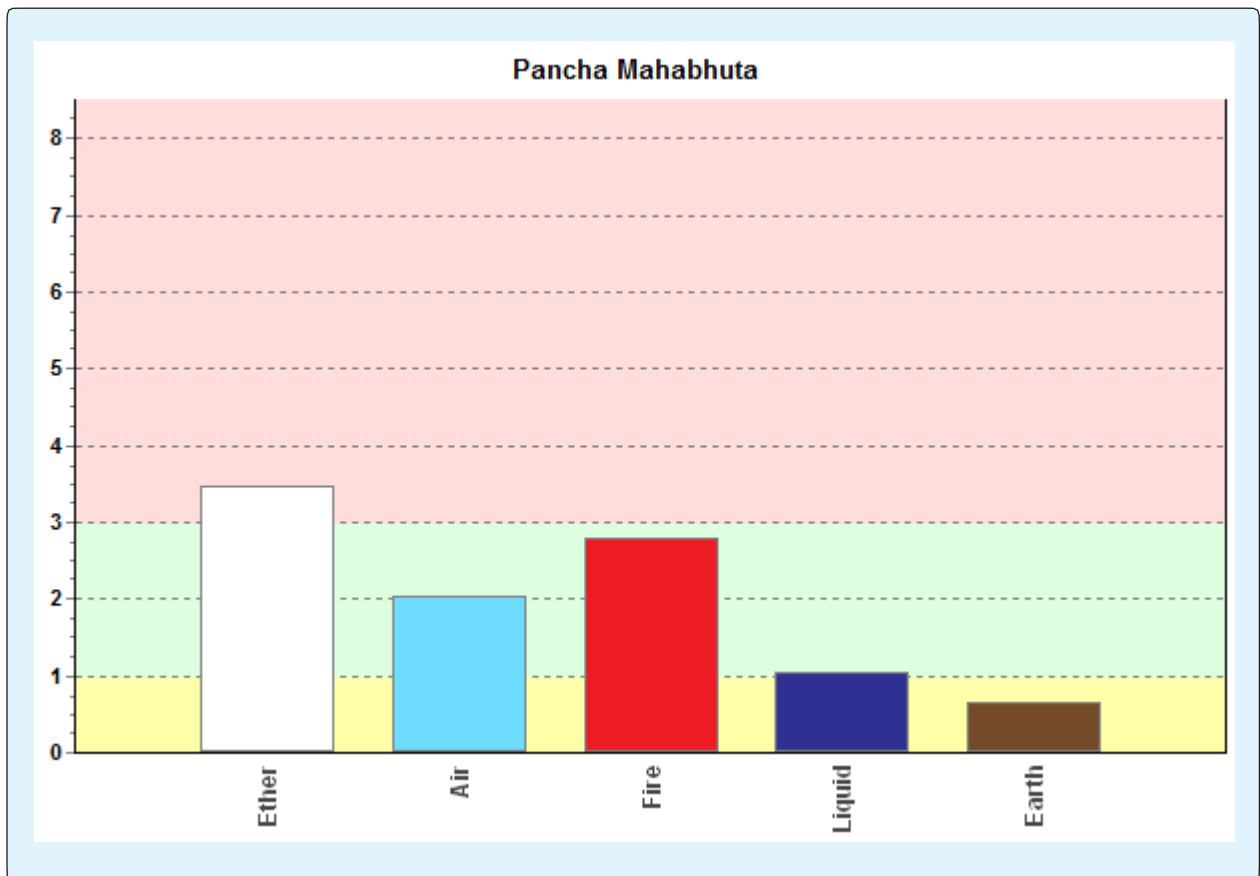

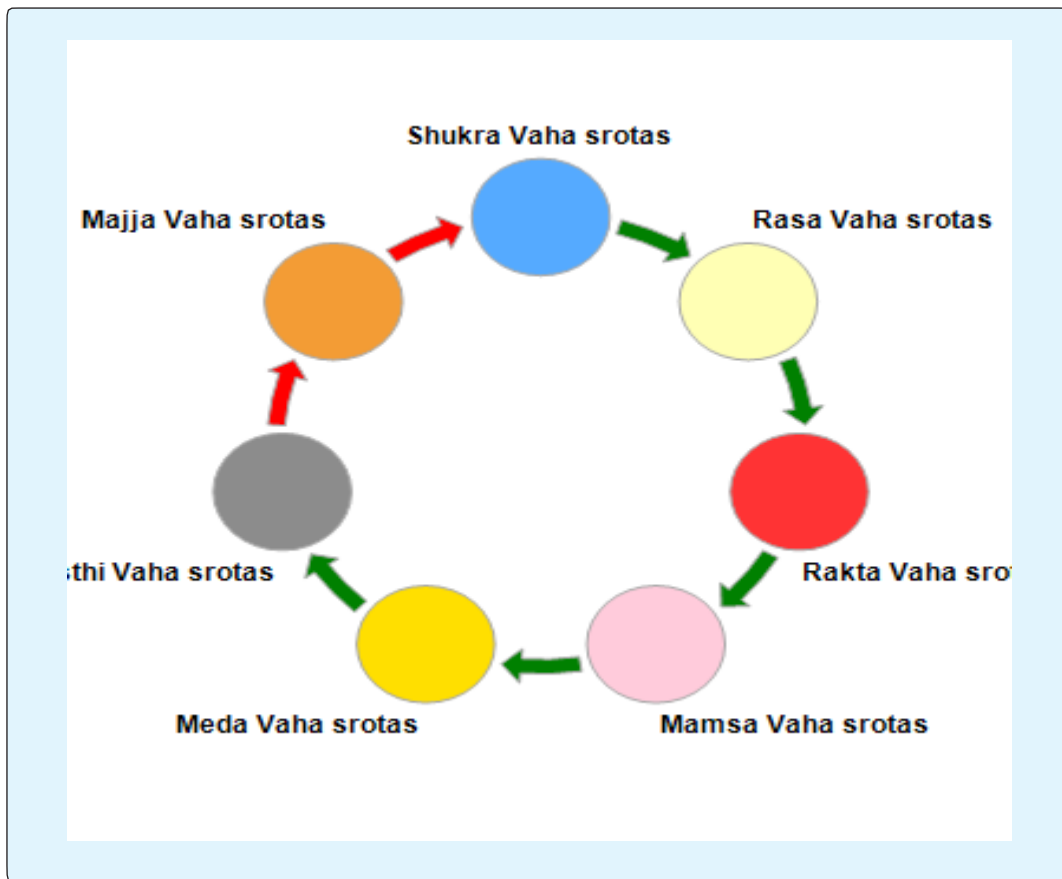

Age: 27

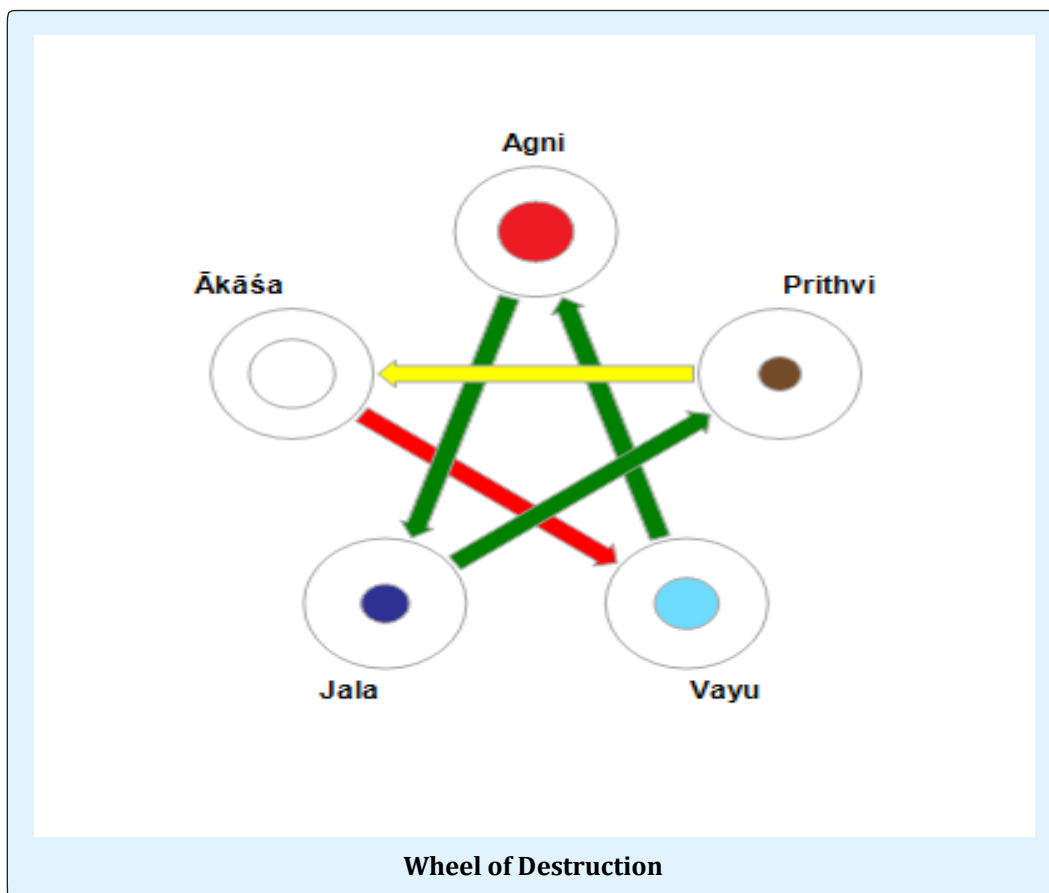

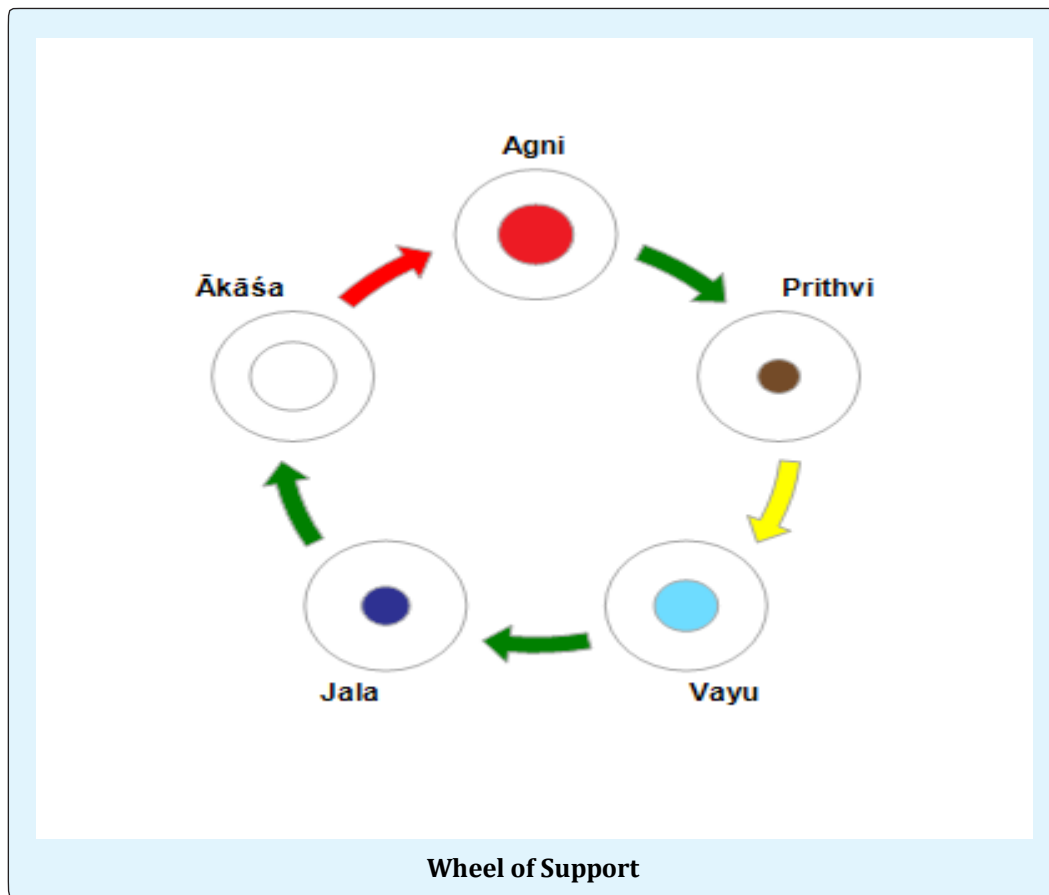

1st Assessment (Before Mantra):

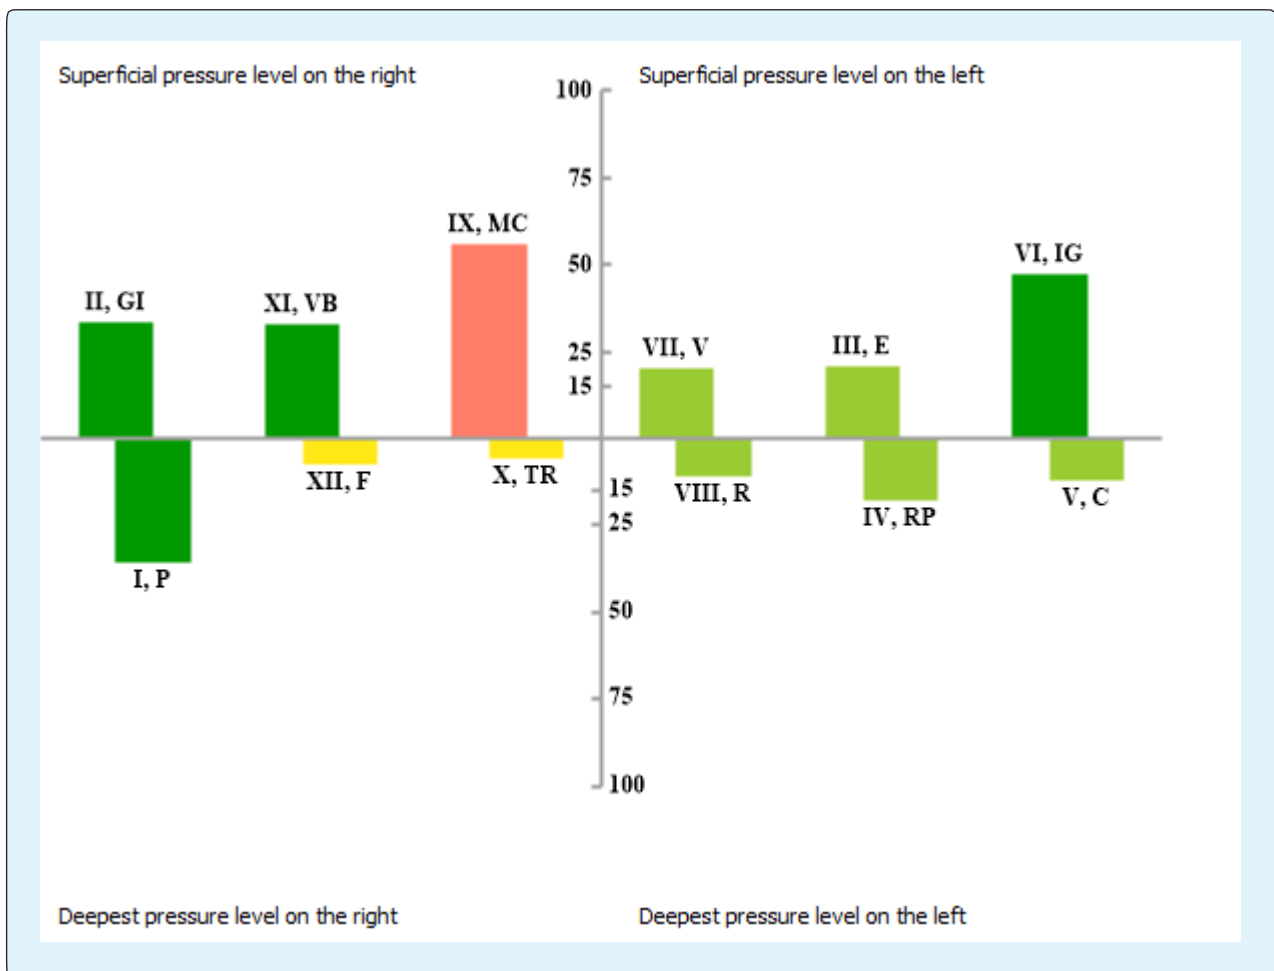

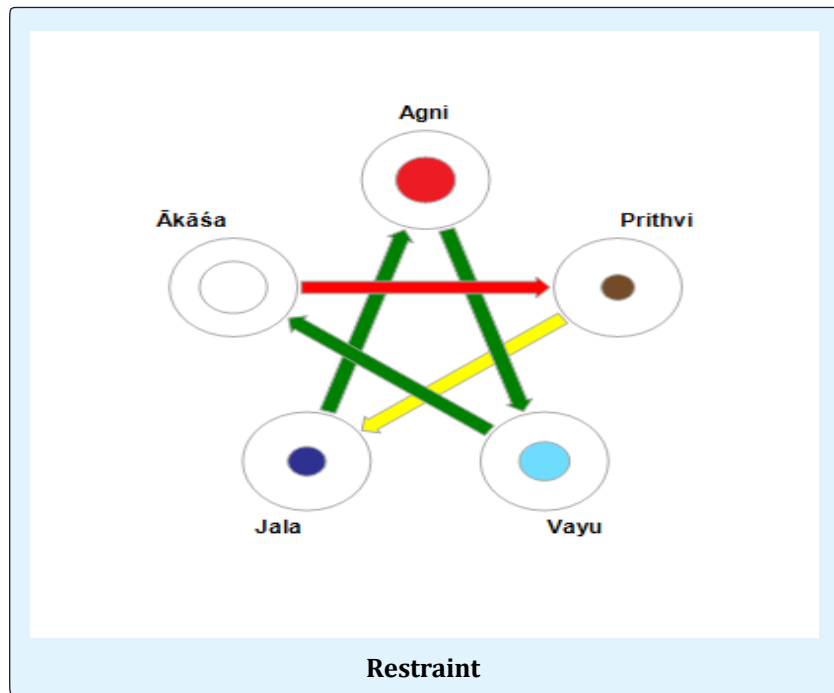

Physiological tendencies in body functions regulation

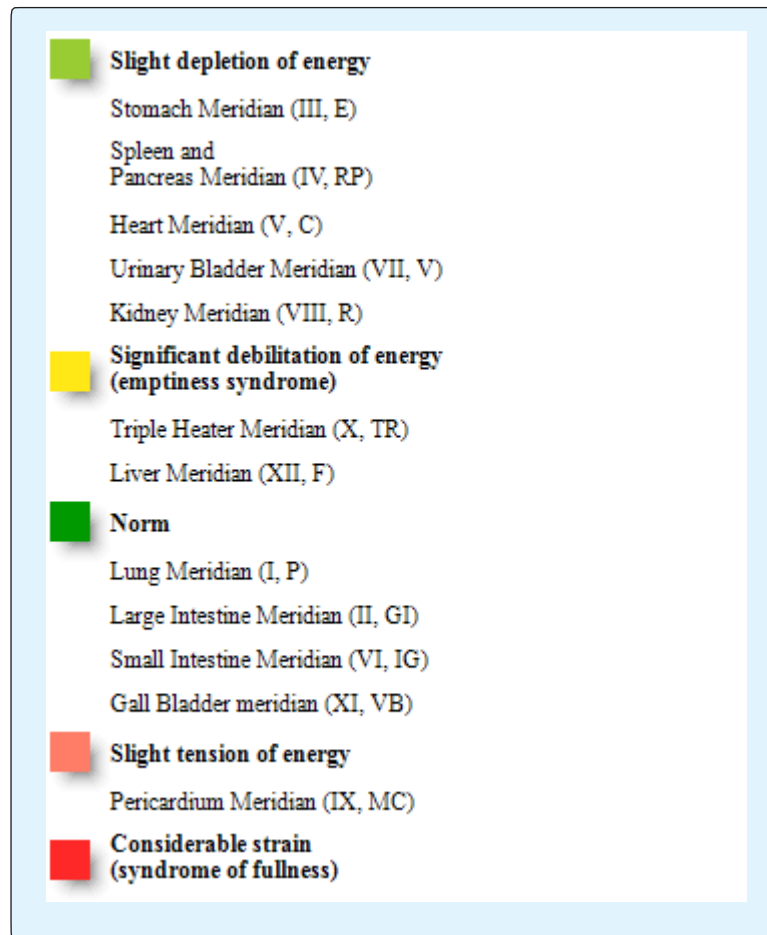

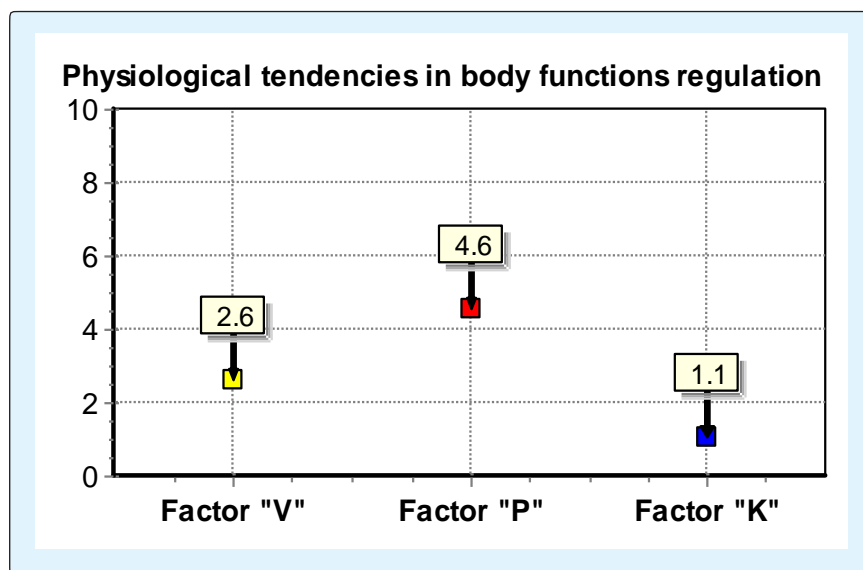

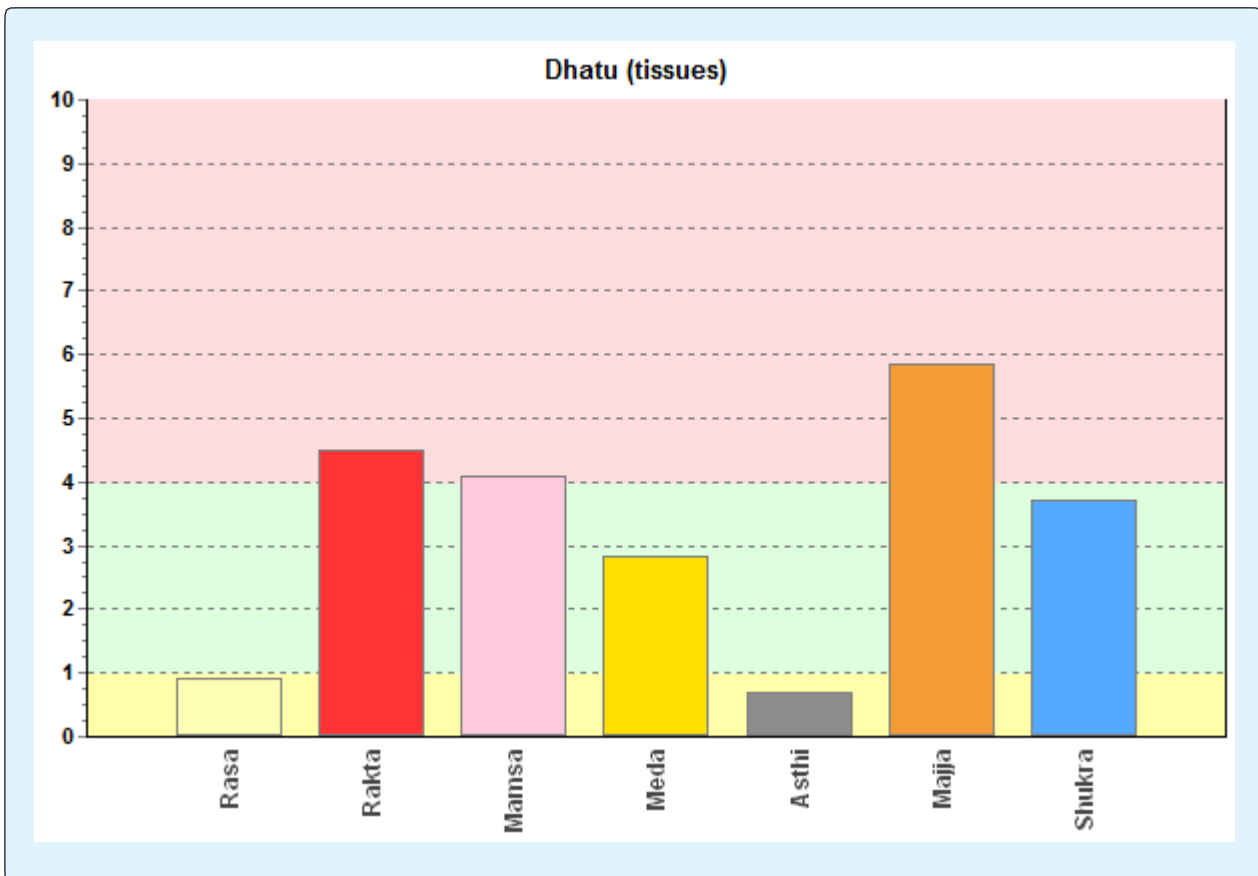

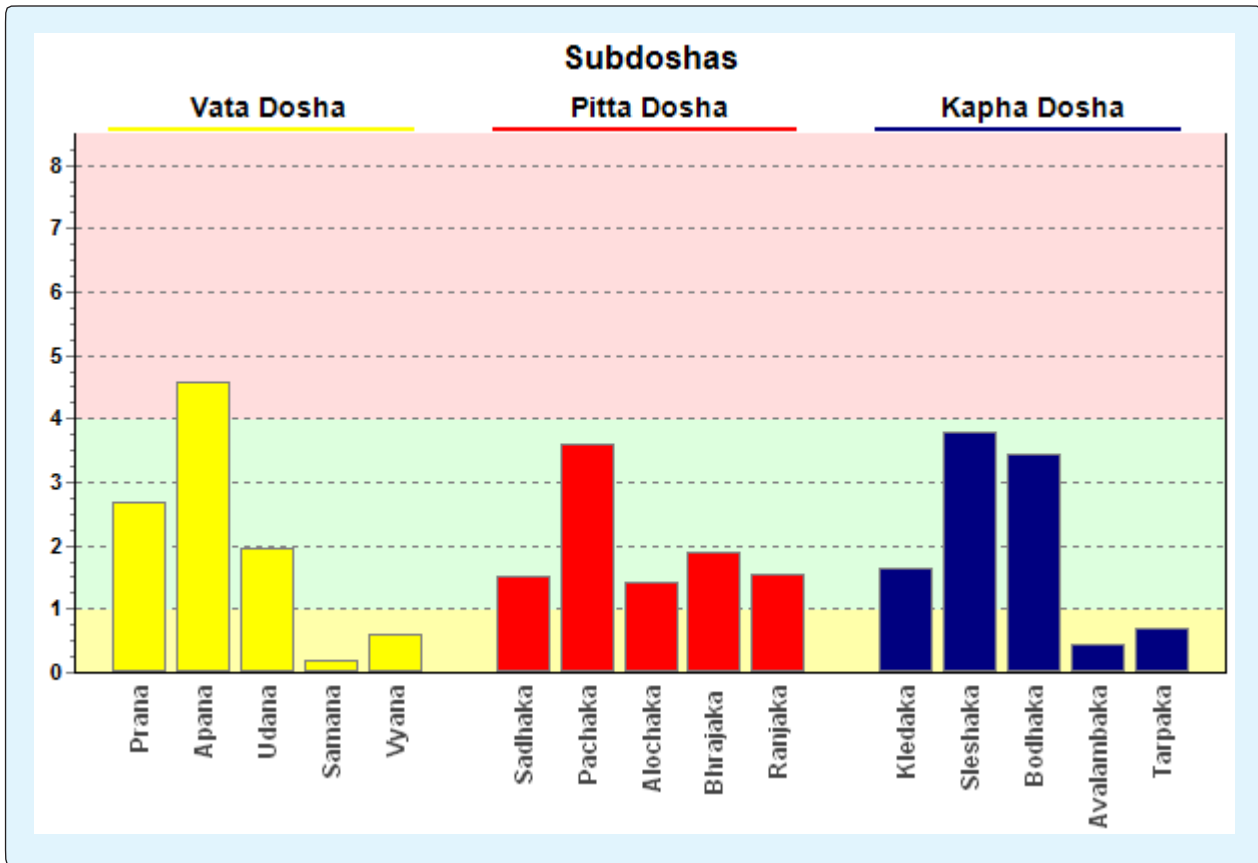

Report 2 shows effects on the meridians taking place while mantra chanting is on.

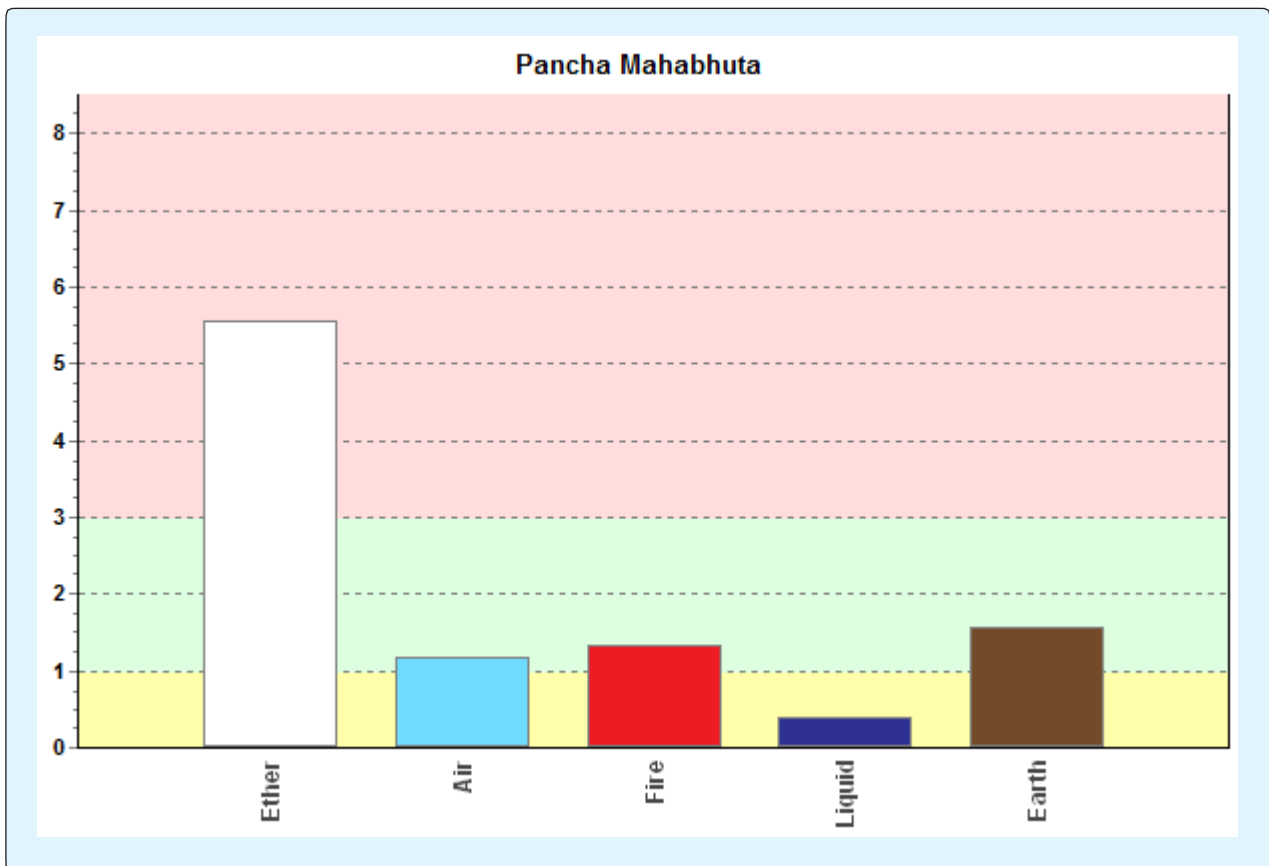

Full name: Georgy Nakrokhin

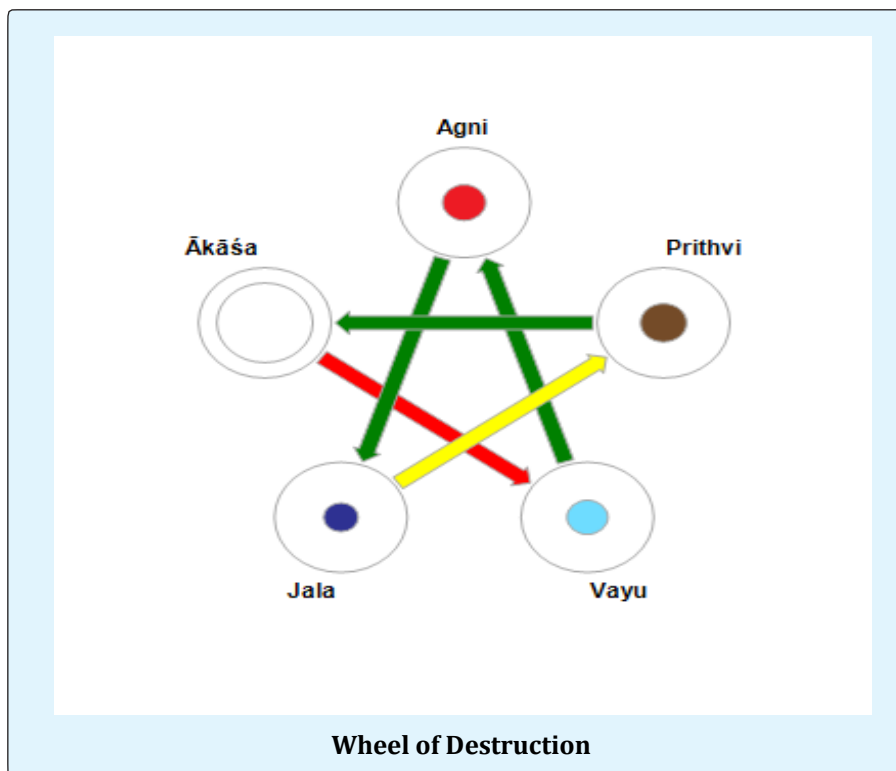

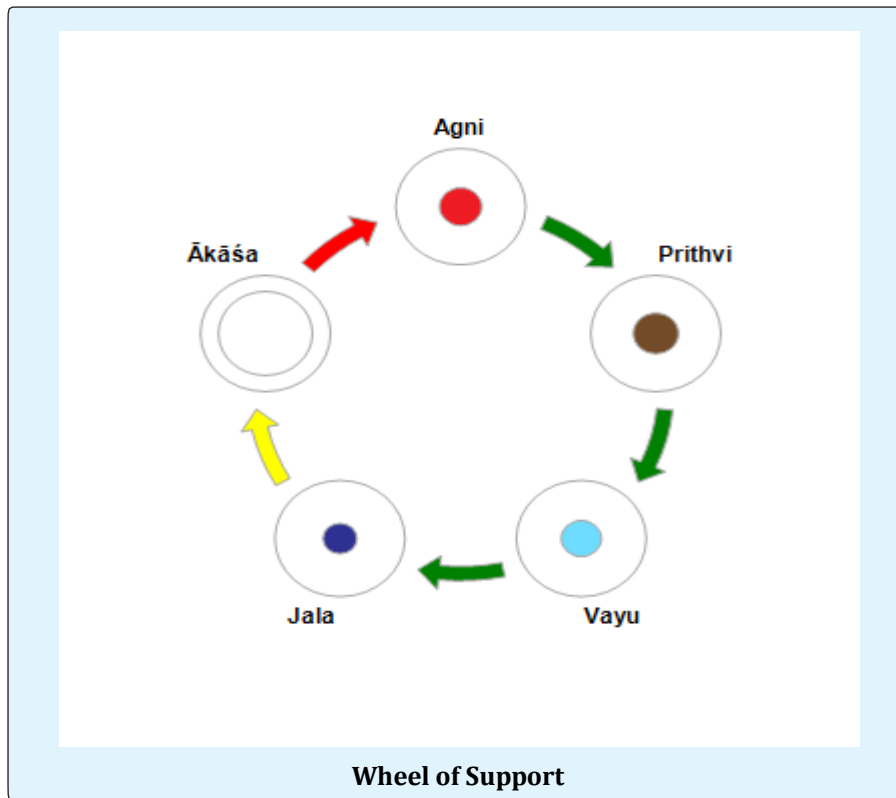

Age: 27

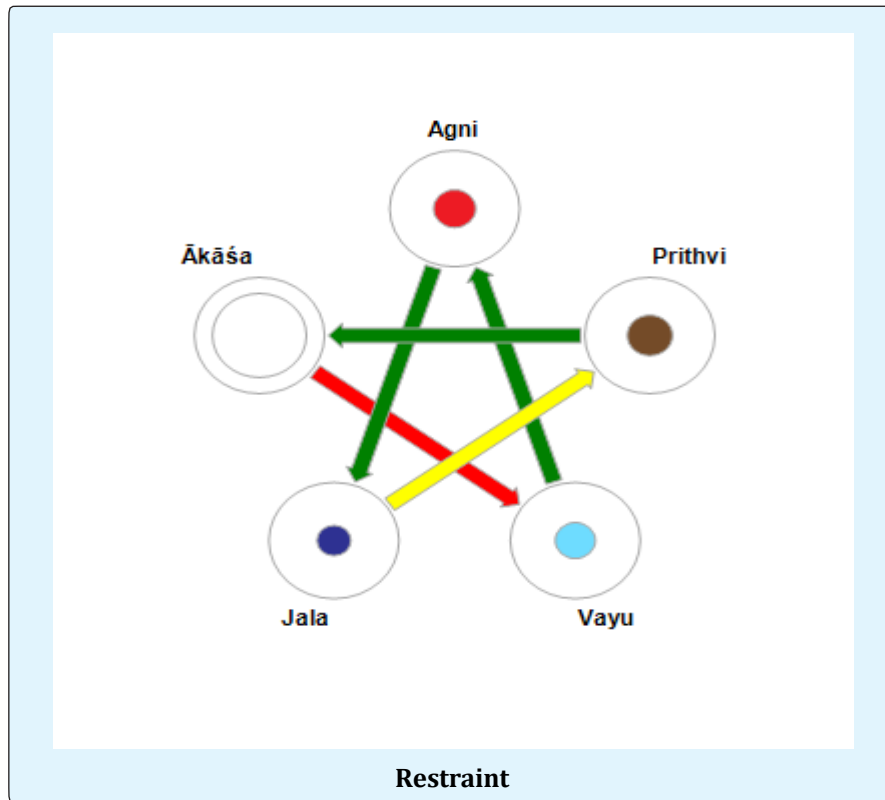

2nd Assessment (During Mantra)

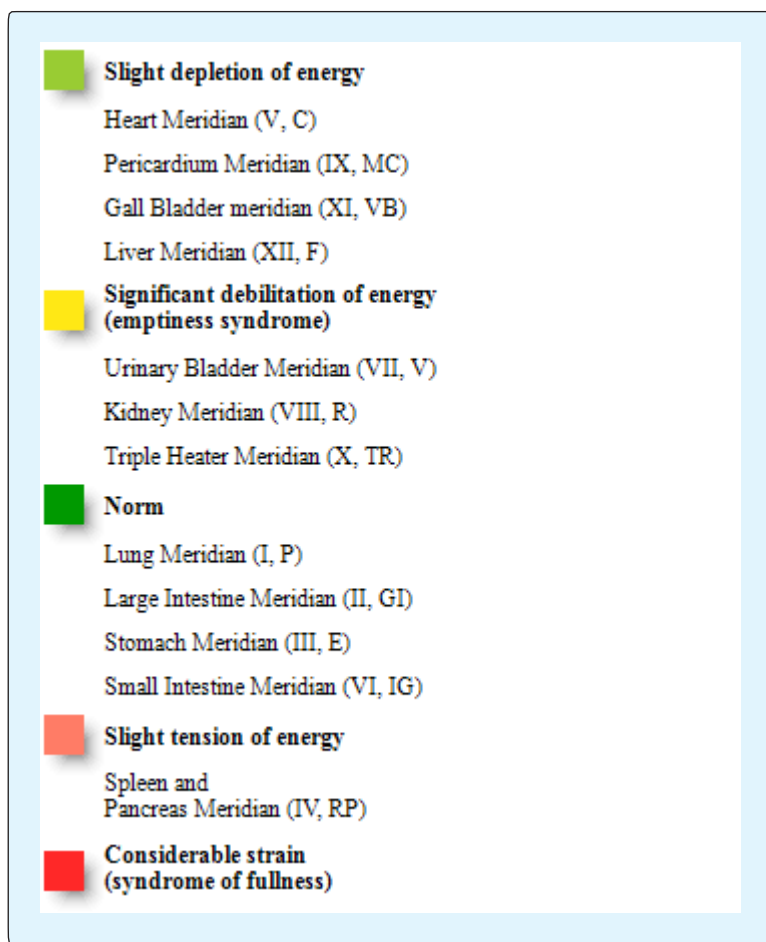

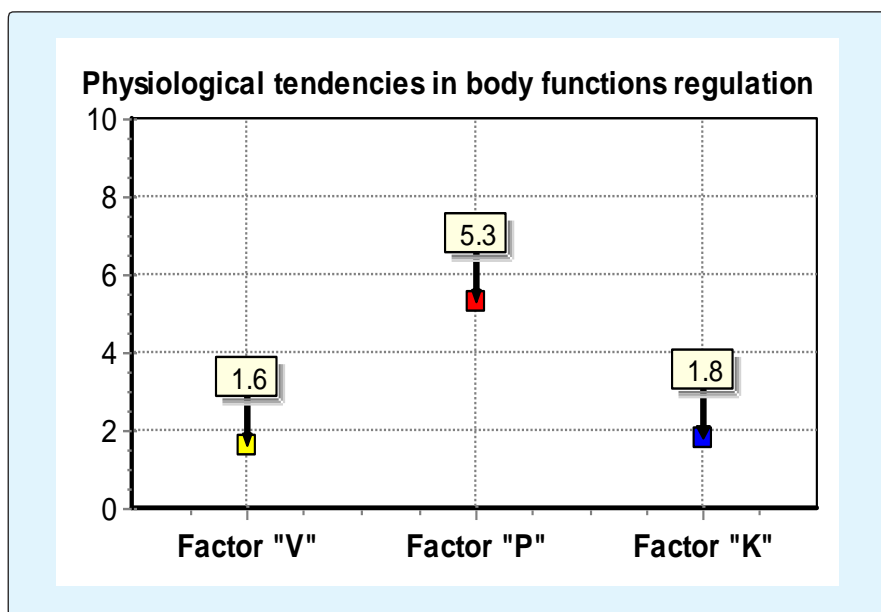

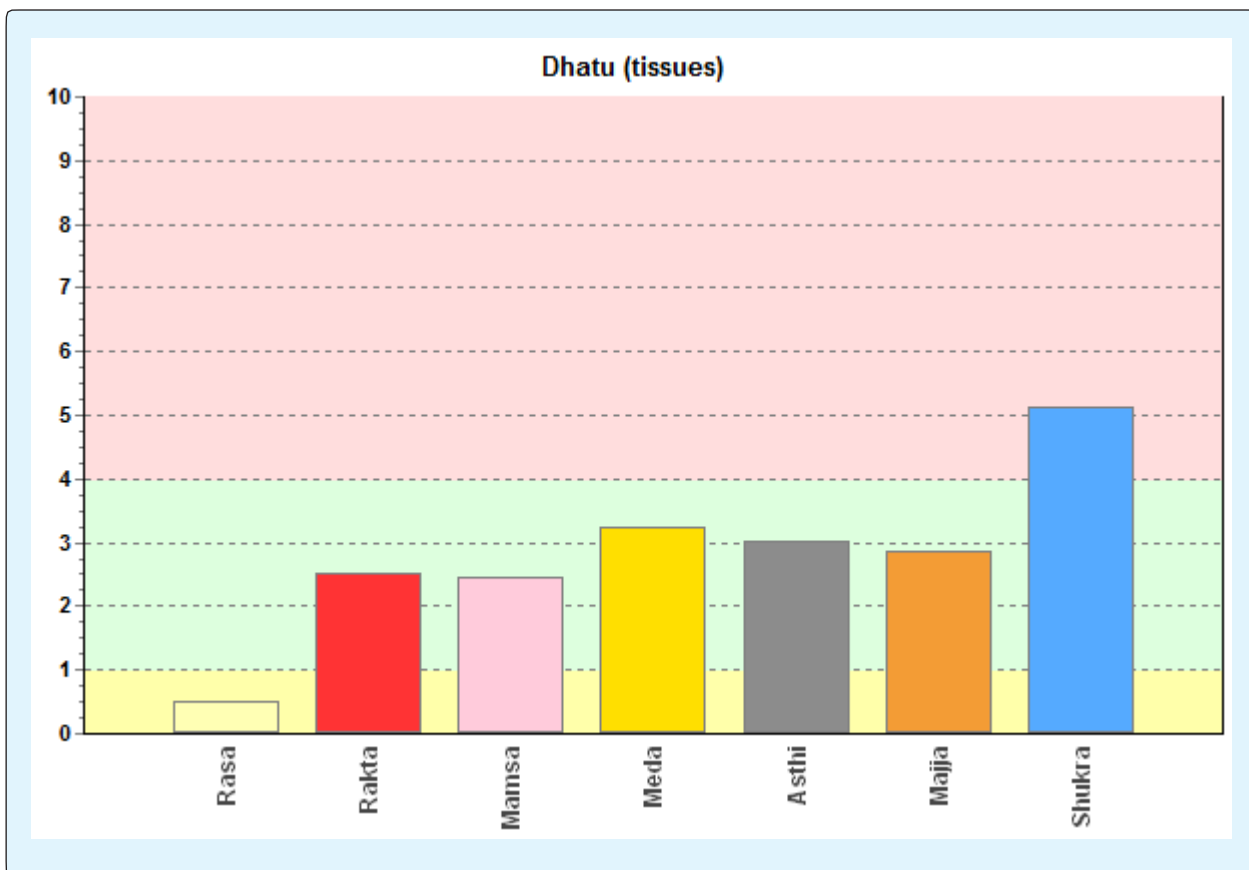

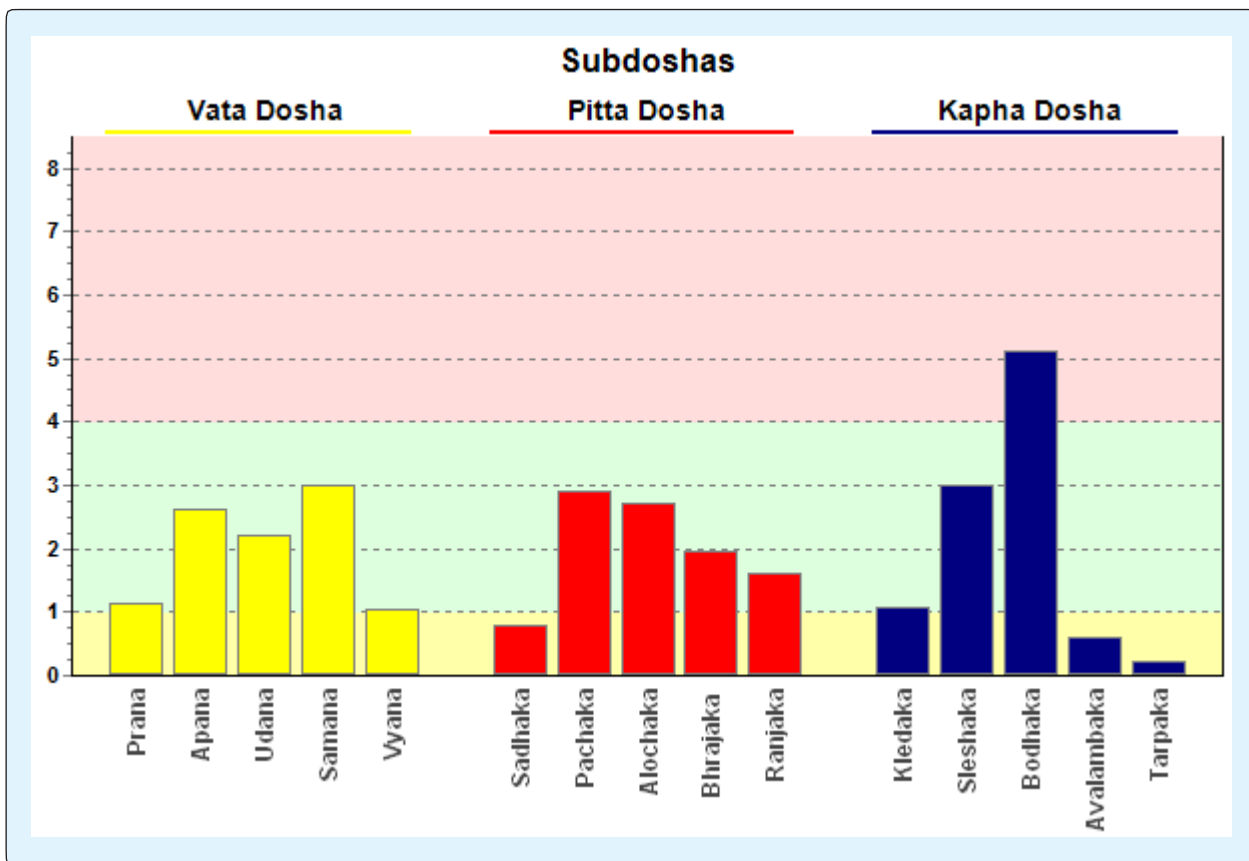

Report 3 shows state of meridians when mantra chanting has ended.

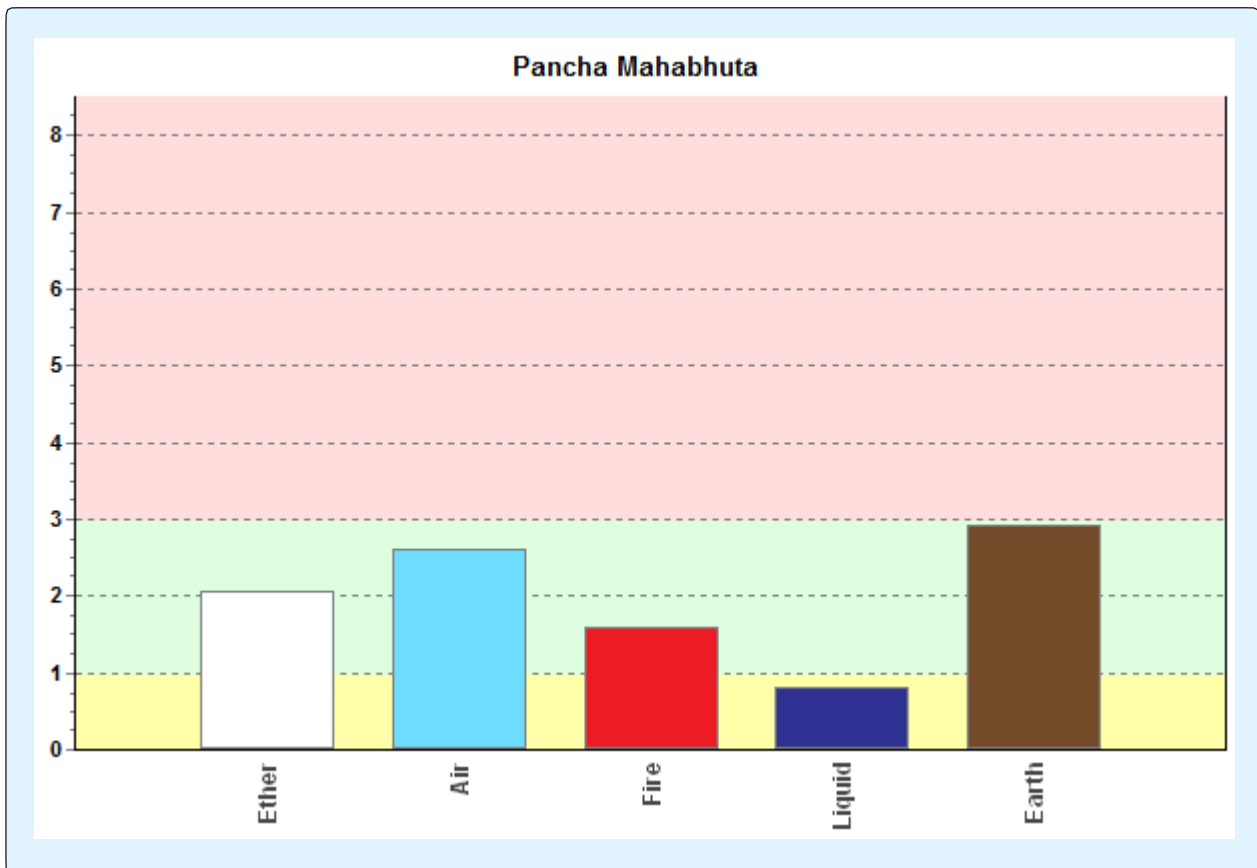

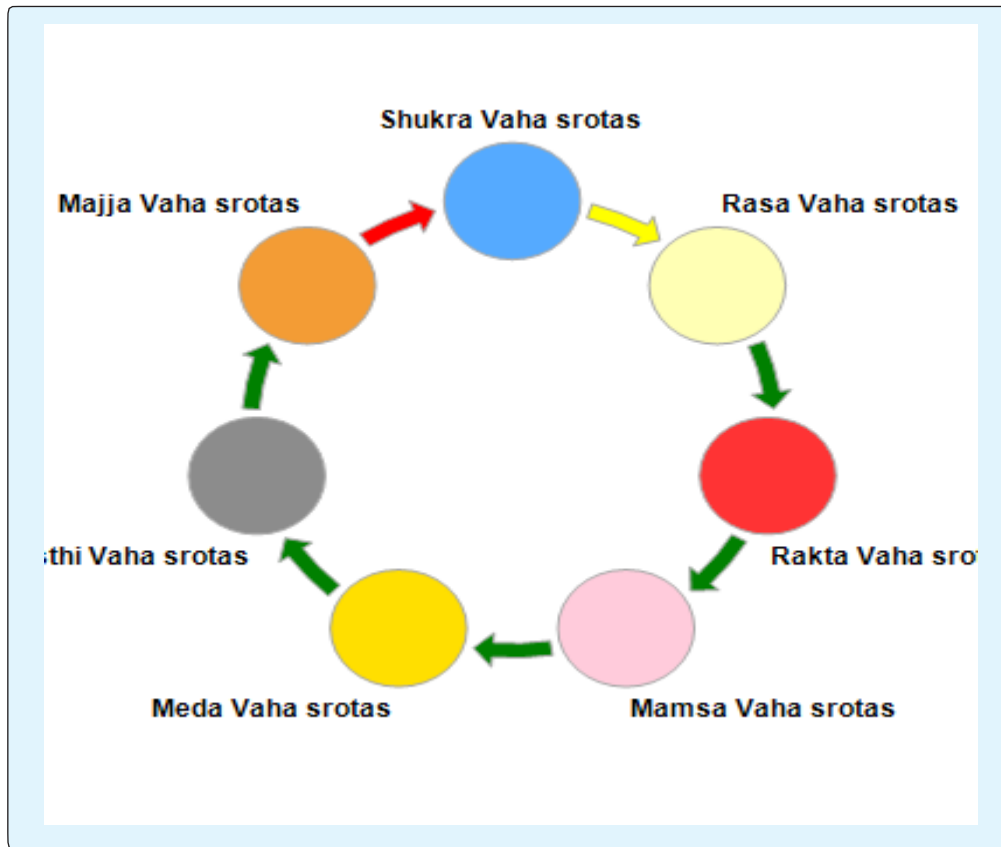

Full name: Georgy Nakrokhin

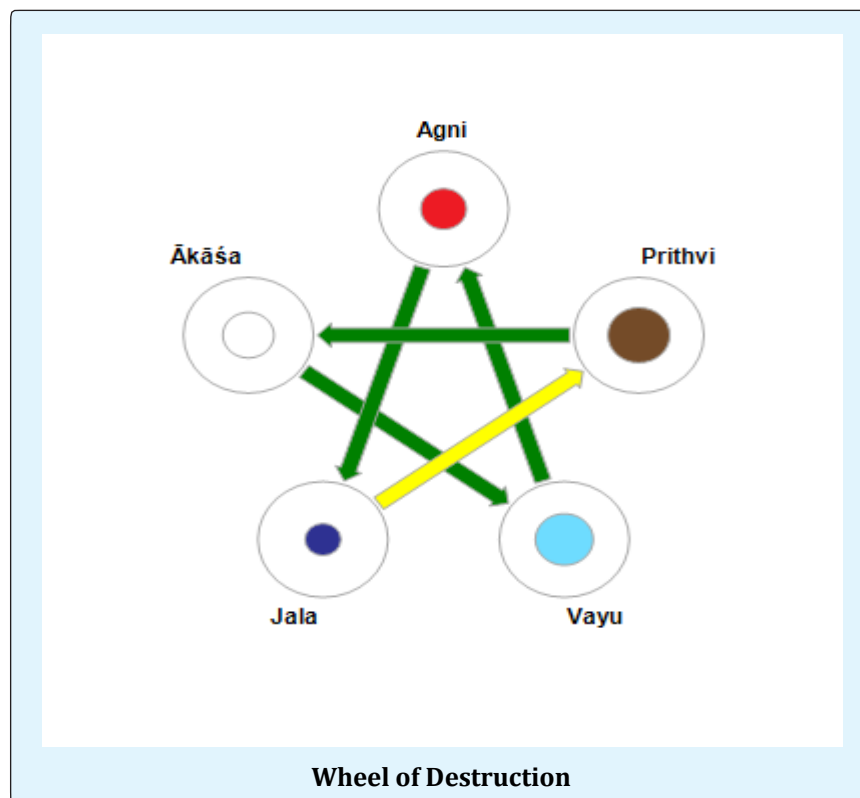

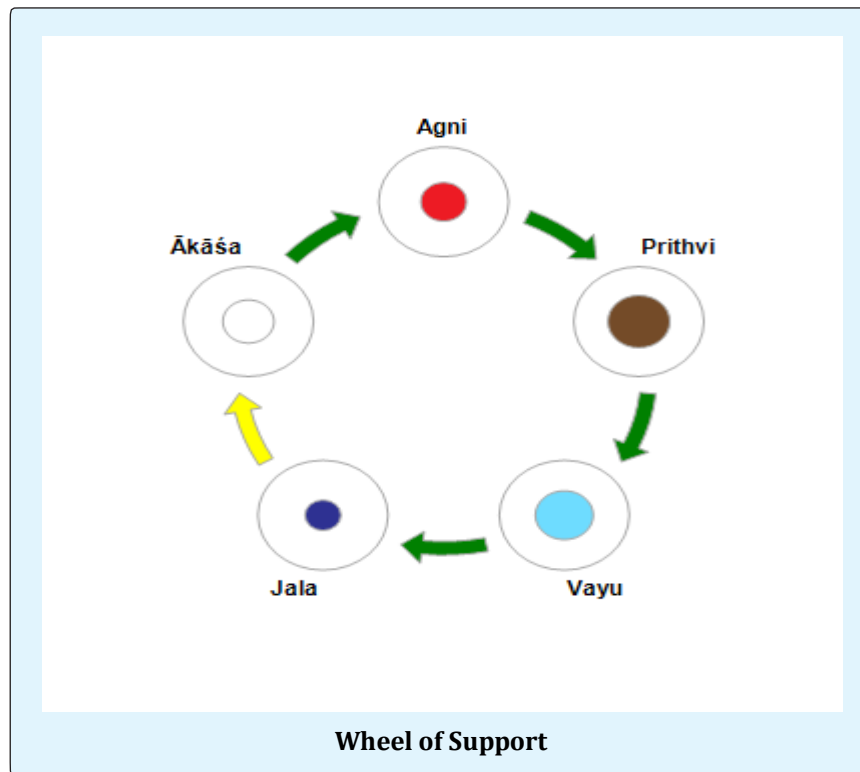

Age: 27

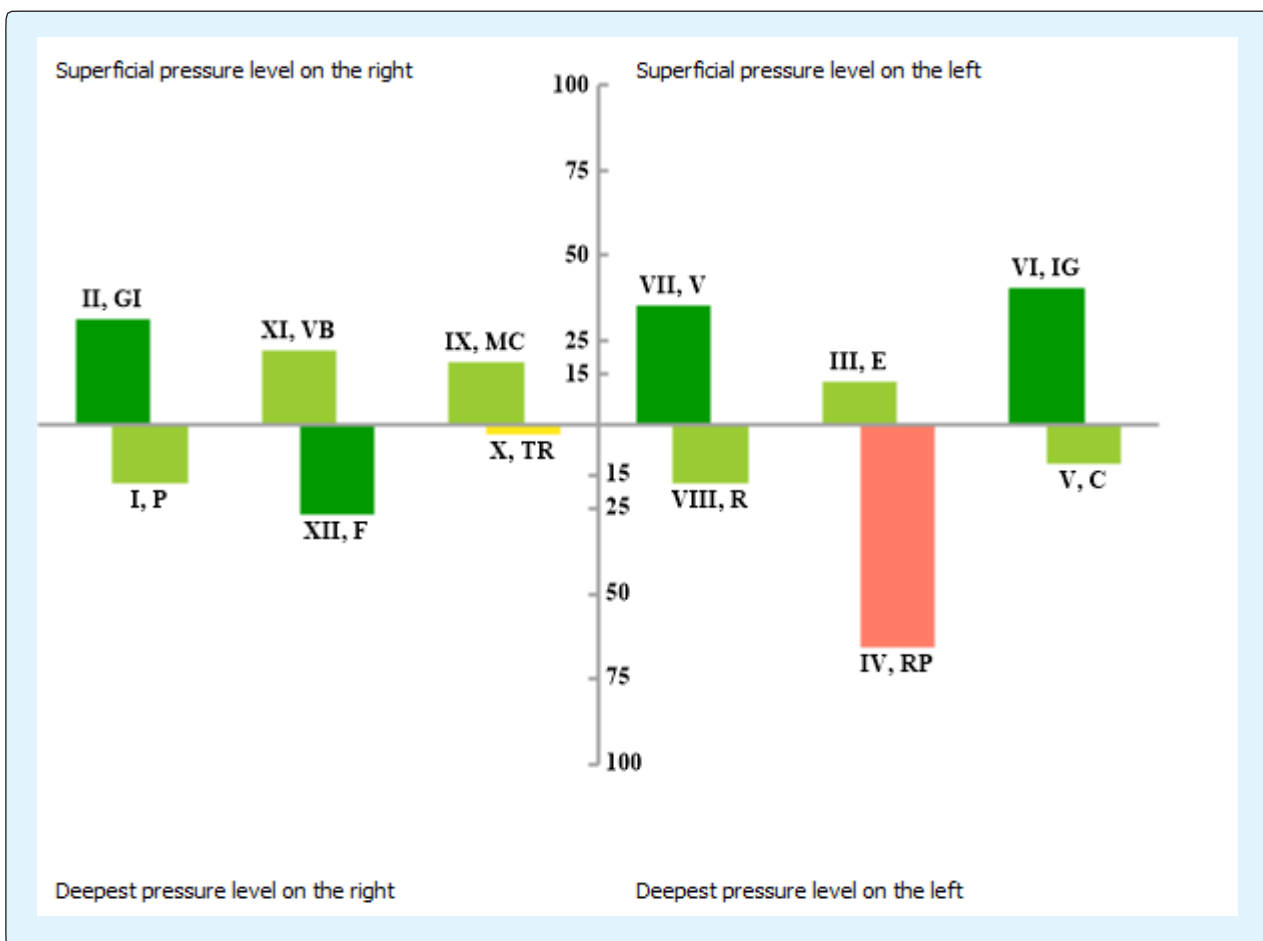

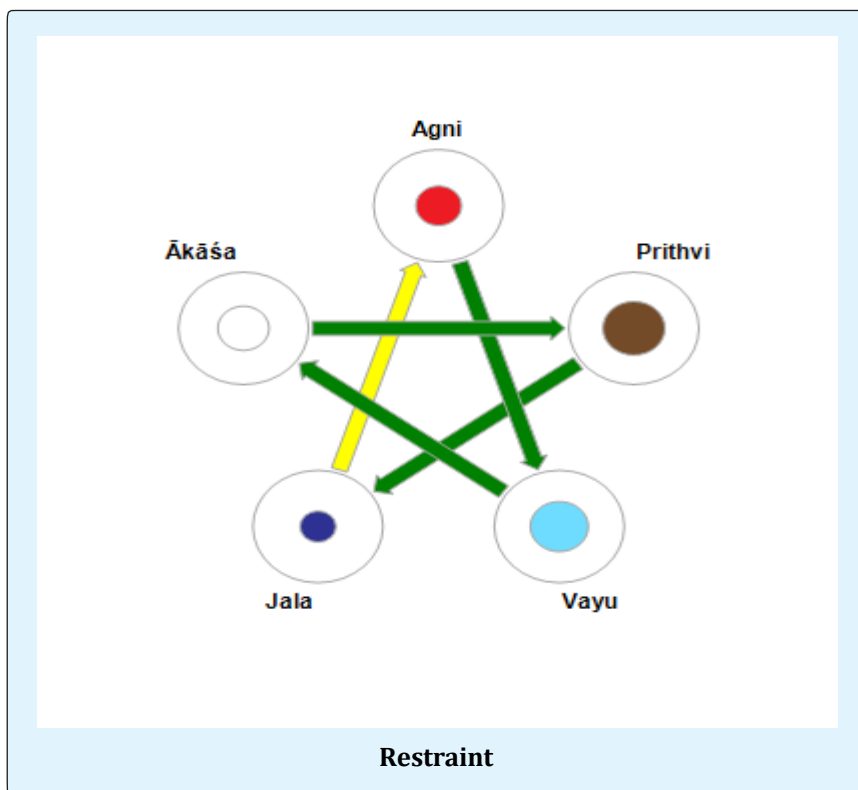

3rd Assessment (After Mantra)

	Slight depletion of energy
	Lung Meridian (I, P)
	Stomach Meridian (III, E)
	Heart Meridian (V, C)
	Kidney Meridian (VIII, R)
	Pericardium Meridian (IX, MC)
	Gall Bladder meridian (XI, VB)
	Significant debilitation of energy (emptiness syndrome)
	Triple Heater Meridian (X, TR)
	Norm
	Large Intestine Meridian (II, GI)
	Small Intestine Meridian (VI, IG)
	Urinary Bladder Meridian (VII, V)
	Liver Meridian (XII, F)
	Slight tension of energy
	Spleen and Pancreas Meridian (IV, RP)
	Considerable strain (syndrome of fullness)

- Please note that words of the mantras or the changes mantras would cause to occur are not known to listener.
- The mantra chanting was done by me in India & the subject who listened to mantras was in another country.
- Skype was used for this purpose.
- Liver channel was included in first report as severe depletion. In 3rd report Liver is included in normal channels.
- Shifting of Liver from severely depleted to normal is extremely significant.
- It is achieved without use of acupressure or acupuncture or without administration of any medicine by any route.
- Surgery was not even thought of.
- No side effects were complained of by the listener nor were any signs of damage to any organ reported by the software.
- Liver specific mantras were not used, with specific mantras greater positive effects would have taken place.
