

Appendix

As a quality improvement initiative, a patient leaflet titled 'Smoking in Pregnancy' has been prepared and made readily available to all doctors working in Mater Dei Hospital, especially those working within the Obstetrics & Gynaecology department. This will help healthcare providers to assist patients with the appropriate contacts for referrals and will also serve as a reminder to us physicians to raise awareness amongst our colleagues and patients.

